

Acute Appendicitis

What is it?

- Appendix- a small sac attached to the large intestine, can burst and spread infection throughout the abdomen, is not an essential organ, most common between ages 10 and 30
- Appendicitis- is when the appendix is infected or inflamed

What are the symptoms of appendicitis?

- Symptoms- Pain in the abdomen that begins around the navel, becomes intense when walking or coughing
- Fever (100 to 101) and chills
- Loss of appetite, nausea, vomiting and constipation
- If a pain in the lower right abdomen for more than 4 hours see help

Is it serious?

- Can be- life-threatening if ruptures
- Can Cause- peritonitis with life-threatening infection
- Bacteria to infect the bloodstream-septicemia
- Infection - can lead to shock

What do I need to do?

- See your Health Care Provider- immediately
 - Treatment- abdominal CT Scan, abdominal ultrasound, diagnostic laparoscopy

Complications- peritonitis, infection of the Surgical wound, abscess, abnormal connections between abdominal organs or between these organs and the skin surface

